

1. COMMUNIQUE DE PRESSE :

Since the announcement and release of PAPRIUM we have been under relentless attacks from a few individuals who worked day and night to have us fail. This has a name: hate, envy, stupidity.

Unfortunately, combined with the cowardize (or opportunity?) of the biggest internet actors, their actions managed to get our funds (once again) seized making PAPRIUM the biggest game ever developed, manufactured and distributed "for free".

We have continuously, over the last 12 years, manufactured and delivered, always exceeding expectations. We defined and shaped our own market with quality and - although retro - innovative products. Many un-matched even a decade later. Each of our games released are new milestones in the retro gaming industry.

However, with the rise of management by bots, political correctness, quantum computing fabrication, design over function and digital fart ownership combined with the recent taste for mediocrity from various worldwide monopolistic internet actors such as Paypal, Amazon and Google, it seems harder, if not impossible for companies of our size to get paid for our work.

First, we ask each of our customers to keep cool, be bold and hold your options tight until further instructions.

Then, (unlike the last 4 years) we decided to voice our issues publicly and fund our fight by selling our most valuable assets and IP's, this includes:

- PAPRIUM
- Pier Solar & the great architects
- Three undisclosed AAA games for MegaDrive/Genesis and Super Nintendo
- Injection and toolings for manufacturing MD/GEN, Dreamcast, SNES, SuperFamicom and more.
- Acclaimed GRANDSTICK, GRANDCAB and A-BOARD
- Proprietary Hardware IP's including undisclosed High-Grade, No-Latency, Multi-Sync, HDMI upscaler.

As a reminder to our customers: Selling our IP's will not affect your on-going orders may they still require a delivery, we will deliver to you no matter the circumstances, as long as you do not cancel your orders.

We appeal to every journalist to do their job: investigate.
We appeal to everyone to use #LOCUSTERY and make this news spread around.
We appeal to anyone in the video game industry to share this (incredible) business opportunity.

Even if most of us have other concerns in those pandemic times:

Keep faith! Locusts steal, mediocres trolls, others do!

Thank you for your understanding and sorry again for the trouble!
